REPORTS

REPORT OF PRESIDENT

To the Members of The Canadian Club of St. John :

GENTLEMEN :

In the past year our Club has not had as many meetings as in some other years, but in that respect our experience has been shared by most of the Clubs in Canada.

We have usually had very interesting addresses in the summer months. This year, however, the Coronation features disturbed our custom very much, and these were followed by the General Election, which during the months of August and September so engrossed the attention of our people as to place the matter of a Canadian Club meeting quite out of the question.

A great deal of effort was made to secure other speakers whose names and fame would attract our members, but without success, although in some instances the plans had been perfected and in the last moment cancelled because of unavoidable conditions. The year has not been without interest and profit, as in that time some of the very best addresses to which our members have listened were delivered.

On the 18th of May a very successful meeting was held, when in conjunction with the Loyalist Society and the Women's Canadian Club, Loyalist Day was fittingly observed. I would strongly recommend that this should be a yearly event.

Like my predecessor in office, I had the pleasure of being present at the banquet of the Boston Club on the 28th November. Among the Canadians present I met many of New Brunswick birth. I was impressed with the warmth of the welcome and the kindness of the members. There were also present representatives of the New York Club, to whose annual meeting I had also been invited, but owing to distance and difficulty could not attend.

New Brunswick was very much to the front at the Annual Meetings of the Canadian Clubs in the American Cities during the past year. The speakers at Boston being the Premier and Provincial Secretary; at New York Hon. G. E. Foster and at Philadelphia H. A. Powell, Esq.

A distinctive feature of the Canadian Clubs is that while they exist for the purpose of fostering patriotism, they are not associated with any particular sect or party but are representative of all who have at heart the welfare of the Dominion. Our purpose is to encourage a study of the institutions, history, arts, literature and resources of Canada and our endeavour to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the Dominion as may be desirable and expedient; along these lines enrolled in our Clubs all over the world (as far east as Japan there are two) Canadians are associating themselves. In the past year there has been much progress and during the coming year more is looked for.

I appreciate very highly the honor of having been elected President of the Saint John Canadian Club and have been conscious of my short comings. I trust that the members will accord to my Successor and the new executive the same interest, sympathy, suggestions and help which have so generously characterized them in the past and that we may all endeavour to make our Club of force and benefit to the community.

GEO. A. HENDERSON,
President

Feb. 1st. 1912.

REPORT OF SECRETARY.

To the Officers and Members of the Canadian Club of St. John, N. B.

GENTLEMAN:—

Our Canadian Club has now completed the fifth year of its existence, and is in a good position both as regards members and finances; although in the former regard the past year has not shown the increase that we would like to have seen. The Withdrawals due to removal from the city have been exceptionally numerous, and Death also has claimed a greater number than usual. We commenced the year with a membership of 573, have received 31 applications, but owing to withdrawals, etc. the year shows a net decrease of paid members, the number at present on the roll being, 502.

RECEIPTS:

which have gone through the Secretary's hands are as follows:

Dues,.....	$494
Luncheons,.....	180
Subscriptions towards the entertain- ment of the Sheffield Choir,	65
Refund "Tryon" Moncton Club,	10
Total,.....	<hr/> $749

which amount has been duly given over to the Treasurer, and will be accounted for by him.

Events of the Year.

During the year the Club held meetings as follows:

February	7, 1911.	Annual Meeting,
February	29, " "	Dr. J. L. Tryon,
March	25, " "	Reception of Sheffield
		Choir,
April	4, " "	Hon. W. J. Hanna,
April	24, " "	Frederick Campbell,
May	18, " "	Loyalist Celebration,
August	8, " "	Hon. C. J. Bonaparte,
November	20, " "	Sir Andrew Fraser,
		K. C. S. I.,

January 30, 1912, Dr. H. T. DeWolfe,

The meetings while not numerous were especially interesting, but with the exception of the occasion on which Sir Andrew Fraser addressed us, the attendances were not as large as might be desired considering our membership.

During the year, the executive has met eleven times, with an average attendance of five.

In July last the Association of Canadian Clubs met at Winnipeg for the third Annual Conference and Dr. W. S. Carter, now of Fredericton, but a former member of this Club, was elected President of the Association for 1911-2. The Secretary-Treasurer is also a New Brunswicker being Mr. Amos O'Blenes of the Moncton Club. Your Secretary also was elected to the General Executive, and appointed Vice-President for New Brunswick.

It is the intention to hold the fourth Annual Conference in the City of Fredericton, probably during September next, and in view of the comparatively limited membership of that Club, I feel that it would be well for us and the other New Brunswick Clubs to offer any assistance in our power so that the East may uphold its reputation for hospitality. The standard set by Winnipeg last year was a high one, and we must not be out-done particularly at this time when we feel that the East is coming into its own.

In connection with the work of the Association of Canadian Clubs, I would advise that the majority of the Clubs agreed to recognize each others members, consequently any of our members who may be visiting other Cities will be gladly welcomed at any luncheon or meeting which the Canadian Club of that place may hold during their stay.

In closing I wish to acknowledge the debt we are under to the Press generally for their liberal co-operation, and more particularly to the "times", who have in addition to liberal press notices also granted us the use of their office for the holding of Executive meetings.

H. A. PORTER,
Secretary,

LITERARY CORRESPONDENT'S REPORT.

It is interesting to note that two of the very able addresses to which members of the Club listened during the last year dealt with the subject of international peace; and two others, delivered by men who had lived in India, presented in a very clear light the problems which confront the British government in that vast dependency. There were seven addresses in all during the year, and though less in number than in years previous they were of exceptional interest and value. There was no address at the annual meeting.

The first address of the year was on The Peace Movement, by Rev. Dr. Tryon, assistant Secretary of the America Peace Society, who had attended peace conferences at Munich, London, and the Hague. The various steps and the advance made in the general peace movement in the world were clearly set forth by Dr. Trycn, with special reference to the part played by Great Britain and the United States, and an appeal for a fitting celebration of one hundred years of peace between these great powers.

The Club, on March 25th, in conjunction with the Woman's Canadian Club, took advantage of the presence of the famous Sheffield Choir, who gave in St. John the first concert on their world tour, to extend to the choir a cordial welcome to Canada. Lieut. Governor Tweedie and Mayor Frink were present, and the visitors, at the close of their concert, were the guests at a reception very pleasing to them and greatly enjoyed by the members of the combined Clubs.

Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary of Ontario, whose name is so prominently identified with the movement in that province to reform the method of treatment of delinquents and petty criminals, addressed the Club on Prison Reform. After setting out clearly the underlying principles of the new system, he gave a most interesting account of the work being done in Ontario, especially in connection with the prison farm at Guelph, where so very large a percentage of the delinquents are won back to useful citizenship.

The awakening of Asia was the subject of an address by Mr. Frederic Campbell, a former journalist in India, and a deep student of Asiatic affairs. It was an illuminating address, dealing with China, Japan and India, and with the problems of that future time when the brooding millions of the Orient, profiting by contact with the western world, shall have developed a new civilization and become conscious of their own power. The whole subject was presented with great clearness and force.

A very able address, on a subject which perhaps attracts more attention in the United States than in Canada, but which is of universal interest, was that on Judges as Lawmakers, by the Hon. Charles J. Bonaparte, a former attorney general of the United States. His plea for a strong and independent judiciary was forcibly presented, and his allusions to the friendly relations between Canada and the United States were of a pleasing character.

The most successful meeting of the year was that addressed by Sir Andrew Fraser, on British Administration in India. The fame of the speaker, and the general interest in his subject, in view of the approaching Durbar at Delhi, drew out the largest audience of the year. The addresses of the former governor of Bengal was a revelation to his hearers, and left them in possession of a much clearer knowledge of the imperial problems in India.

On Jan. 30th by courtesy of the Women's Canadian Club, members of this Club were enabled to hear a very able address by Dr. DeWolfe, of Acadia Seminary, on The Things that make for International Peace. Dr. DeWolfe presented his statements with great clearness, very ably supplementing those made by Dr. Tryon nearly a year before. Members of the two Clubs, at the close of the address, joined in another of the informal receptions which mark the cordial feeling that exists between them.

Literary Correspondent.
